LOUISVILLE, KY.:
WEDNESDAY MORNING, JAN. 9, 1861

The Democratic Union Convention will meet at the Circuit Court-room this morning at 10 o'clock.

The Two Conventions
For several days our city has been filling up with delegates in attendance on the two conventions, who were called by the Democratic and Union parties to assemble in our city. Yesterday the town was full, and the streets crowded with the crowd.

The Democratic Convention, which met at Concert Hall, presented also a fine appearance, though not equal in numbers to the other. The gentlemen were generally those of age and experience, and occupying high positions in the Democratic party in many a hard-fought field. No man could see either boy or man without feeling that they represented, to a great extent, the weight and character of the State. No one could see them without feeling that it was no mean gathering of petty politicians, seeking for office, but the citizens of the State, called from their homes by the desperate emergencies of the country. We are glad to say that their action, grave and deliberate, justified their appearance. The disorder and confusion that characterizes all conventions when the politicians are striving for office, was not seen. Every one seemed impressed by the dangers in which we are involved and fully aware of the responsibility resting upon them, as citizens of a great State, and speaking for its people.

At the hour of the adjournment of the Convention, verbal reports were only given, stating the union committees of the two conventions were unable, on account of the nature of the master before them, to give in their report, but that they were entirely unanimous. The resolutions will undoubtedly embody the sentiments of the people, and we are confident of the ability of the committee to represent the people. The result of their deliberations will be laid before the Democratic Convention this morning at 10 o'clock, at Circuit-Court room, where the Convention will meet.

Union Meeting in Jeffersoville.

In accordance with the wishes of many citizens of Jeffersoville, Indiana, there will be a Mass Union Meeting held in the Christian Church, in that city, on Friday evening, January 11th, 1861. The object of the meeting is to intelligently consider the danger that threatens our country, and express the sentiment of the people regarding the same. It is to be hoped that every citizen, irrespective of party or political difference, will be in attendance.

A dinner was given, on yesterday, by Capt. Thomas Joyce, to the veterans of the war of 1812, who were in the city as residents or delegates to the two Conventions. All were present excepting two or three whose business in their daily affairs, or as members of the committees of the Conventions, prevented their attendance. The greatest of their number was 60 or 67 years old.

Neglect but the troubles of the country in the present crisis disturbed their enjoyment, and their shifting confidence in the patriotic and common sense of the American people, and their anecdotes and reminiscences of the troublous times of the war in which they all participated, seemed to dispel the anxiety of the present moment after a few moments of their reunion.

We call the attention of the people, North and South, to the patriotic sentiments of the generation now fast passing away, embodied in the account of their meeting drawn up by one of themselves.

MILITARY.—There was quite an impudent military display in the streets yesterday. A battalion of the State Guard was out in force, and made quite an impression on the spectators. The Zouaves were also on parade and exhibited their mimic soldier-like grace and elegance. We have never seen a parade which had so large a number of followers.

AS AN INFORMER.—On the hand, last evening, at the Galt House, struck up Yankee Doodle, there broke a shank which made the rafters of the old building ring, and fairly drove down the notes of the trumpet. At the conclusion of the piece Gen. Combs called for three cheers, which were given with a hearty good will.

PROCESSION.—Tuesday, Jan. 8 George Steely, free negro, disorderly conduct; workhouse for two months. John Conkling, disorderly conduct; discharged Wm. Rouse and wife, arraigned on a peace warrant by Wm. Rodgers; confined until to-morrow. John Connally, arraigned on a peace warrant by Amanda Hedges, arraigned on a peace warrant by John Connally, discharged at Connally's cost.

MURDER AT GROVELAND, IND.—On Sunday night M. H. Hanna and wife, living at Groveland, Putnam county, were murdered in their beds by some unknown person, with an ax. Robbery is the motive ascribed for the deed. The murdered persons were young, lately married and highly respected. The most aggravating instance we ever heard of is the message left behind by the murderers, written on a scrap of paper: "Catch me, if you can."

ABOARD OVER.—Judge Johnson adjourned the city court at 10 yesterday, in commemoration of the battle of New Orleans. Witnesses in cases set for trial yesterday, but which were then continued until to day, will be in attendance.

BUSINESS AFFAIRS.

New Goods.—Guthrie & Bros. are receiving their second importation of dry goods, bought since the decline, which enables them to sell at prices much below usual rates. Rept velours in all colors; French and Irish poplins, all grades; new prints, merinoes, black poplins and mourning goods, evening silks, hose, etc. This is a rare chance for choice goods, at very low prices.

REMARKABLE CONTRAST.—Such is the crowded state of the Paris thoroughfares, that during the past year five thousand persons have been wounded and seven hundred killed by the vehicles of all kinds that fill the streets, and render the crossings so dangerous. Now, it is a remarkable fact that, of the thousands that daily crowd the great clothing house of J. M. Armstrong, on Main street, opposite the National Hotel, not an accident of a serious nature has occurred in six years; but lest some might have fears, since the great reduction in the price of men's and boys' clothing, that the throng should be so great that accident might result, all are assured that the ingress and egress is so arranged that collision is impossible.
